ATTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

Speaking at the Union Oburch on Wedneeds, evening on the subject of the Rev. C. H. Hickling's completion of 25 years as a Minister, Mr W. G. Humphrays said. --Mr Hickling-I am honoured in having been appointed by the Committee of management to represent the Congregation in conveying to your our hearty consistentions on your attainment of the semi-jubilee of your ordination as a Minister of the Cospel, and to bid The Gedepled on the future years of the high service to which during a quarter of a century you have so faithfully and so directedly given your abrongth, l'ersomely I do this with tight good will ; and I take it that I have been called upon to be the spokesman of the Church on this occurion, in that as one of the Trustees of the Union Church, a member of its Comand in alder, I am privileged to representhe Trustees, the Managing Committee, 1976 the officer bearen and the siders seemion. as well as the whole body of the Congregation worshipping in this building, in assuring you of our high appreciation of your work since you arrived in this Colony, your unstinted devotion to duty, your puting energy, and your faithful services as a > Minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The main outlines of your career were necessarily before the executive Committee and the Committee of Management at the time of your coming to us; and I think is might be suitable if I were to mention a low of the facts that then came before us to this meeting. Ladies and Gentlemen .- While our Pastor has been at ordained trinister of the Church for the long period of 25 years, his existiones of Christian work extends over La rero, much longer, for from his boyhood he seems to have been activaly engaged in the effort to spread a knowledge of the Gospel among those about him. In 1873 we find him a Sunday School Teacher in the Charita Cate Congregatiqual Church at Nottingham, of which he became a member in the following year, After various other practical experience of Chia tim work he became a student of an iney College, London, in 1876. There he had a distinguished career, gaining the Holme's Jubiles Prize, at that time the only important prize open to competition in the College. Towards the close of his theologial training he received two invitations to the pasterate, one to a London Church. the other town Church seventson miles north of London. The latter he accepted and in due course was ordained to the pestorate care of Floddesdon Compragational Church, in Hertfordshife, This took place in the Autumn of 1880, and it is of this event, Ladies and Gentlemen, we ment to-night to calchests the semi-jubilee.

The Church at Hodde-don he found in a somewhat depressed condition, but under his care the congregations became large and regular, and new organizations, especially among the young people, dame into existence; and the flourishing state of affairs he was able to leave to his successor has proved permanent.

Liter seven years work at Hodderdon a unstrimous call from the Pevensey Road Church at Eastbourne summoned him to THE HONOKONG LAND INVEST: change his sphere of labour, and fin 1887 MENT & AGENCY CO., LD. ... At find him settled at Eastbourge doing a work very similar to that he had done in his first pastoral charge. Durings his four years pastorate a mission station which was already worked by the Church became soll-supporting, while two others one four miles away were established. Lay preschere set working by Mr Hickling are still doing beeful No. 1. RIPON TERRACE. evengelistic work smong the villages around the well known watering place.

PLATS in Mongrou Terrace, facing the line in 1891 Mr Hickling was significant. toe change of pastorate by an unsought invitation to Withington, a suburb of Man-chaster, where he maintained his previous record, adding to the organization he found already existing a young people's guild, a literary society, a band of hope, and EST. Pleasast Sunday afternoons for men.
While thus earnostly discharging the duties and reponsibilities of a busy pastorate. Mr.
1869 Hicklings was also been Secretary of the Manchester and Sellard Branch of the Loudon Missipality Society Lt was while at Manchester that Mr Hickling was decovered by Mr Quintin Hogg, the founder of the Loudon Polytechnic and by him and Made E. K. Studd was persuaded to oin them in the splendid work for the young men of the metropolis as chaplain at the Polytechnic, a position to which he was transferred in 1901 and profound expressions of regret from the congregation which he left in Manchester. Just about this time, here in Hongkong, Mr. Williams in imated bissiptention to reign the pasternia of Union Church, sacing Tapilon Compittee consisting of the late Mr David Cearined, to long a read friend of he Union Rates the Rev. B. Wardlew

Mr Hickling's mislonary onthuinsm, ions proved by his work for the London Missionary Society in the home land, to which I have already referred, has here found an outlet in many directions, of which possibly the most important and far-raching has been the affliation of this Church with the To Tsai Native Church of the London Mission in an effort to reach hilherto unevangelized villages in our own New Territory, under the title of the Hongkong and New Territory Evergelization Society. The Literary Club, the most successful organization of its kind that has existed in this Colony, must, after allowances are made for the energy of its officers, be acknowledged as a direct outcome of Mr Hickling's many-sided personality.

The broad view of life taken by Mr Hickling, and the interest he has shown, and practically shown in every form of recreation and legitimate sport have opened a way for him to the hearts of the young men of the Colony, and he has not been close to avail himself for spiritual purposes of opportunities thus sflorded him. His interest in sport is not a thing of recent growth. In his early manhood he was an original member of the Notts Forest Foot. ball Toum, and himself started an Amsteur Oluh which eventually twice won the County Cup. A Crickel Club at Nottingham also originated by Mr Hickling itstill in existence and going strong.

In this brief resume of your career, Sir, I have confined myself, as it seemed to me you would wish, to the bare statement of the facts. Your life among us as our Pastor has been in line with what we were led to expect of you. By your zeal for the Meder's service; by themicror of truthand rightenusness which you have constantly heldun to our view from the pulpit; by your constant endeavour, through example and precept to form in us all a true Chistian character; by your sermons and prayers endeavouring to spiritualize our minds, and correct theworldly tendencies tooppore t in the social and business life of this Colony; by your manly courtesy by your sympathy and kindly deeds, you have won our affection and esteem.

In order to commemnate this auspicious occasion, and to place in your hands some small tangible token of our esteem for you, and appreciation of your labours since you came among us, the Committee as representing the Congregation have requested me to ask your acceptance of these books, which they trust may be of value to you; The books are as follow:---

The Life of our Lord Jesus Christ by Tisset (2 vols.); 'The Middle Kingdom' y, Williams (2 -vols.); 'Dictionary, of [ Bible, by Hastings; 'The Encyclopaedis of Mesions by Dwight, Tupper and Blies; * Chinese Characteristic, by Smith : 'The Religious of Authority and the ligion of the Spirit, by Sabatier; 'The Life of James Legge, by his Daughter. Below I sit down. I wish in a word to vice the feelings of every member of the one regation as to out high appreciation THE of Mrs. Hickling's services to the Church She has proved herself a model minister's wife, and has endeared herself to all. We rejelo with you in the joys of your family ife, in the business greer bonoumbly pening up before your son, and in the spending marriage of your daughter. To the latter I would have been tempted to refer in greater detail, but I understand that the ladies of the congregation will at a hter stage of the evining's proceedings have omawhat to say more directly on this

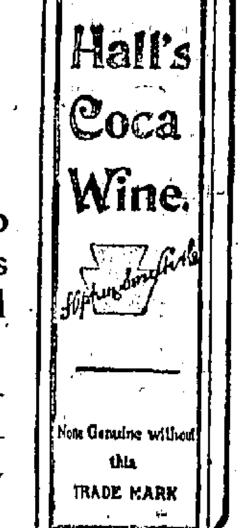

Inconclusion, permit me in name of this congregation to express the prayer, that You may he long spared to continue the work for God and His Church to which you have devoted vourself with such carnest purpose during these pasttwenty-five years; and that the ripe experience you have gathered in the very widely differing spheres in which you have moved may by God's grace enable you to render yet larger service to Christ's kingdom in the years to

The following inscription has been made on one of the volumes! Presented (with other volumes) to the Reverend C. H. Hickling: on the occasion of the Somi-Jubiles of his ordination to the Ministry of the Cospel, by the Congregation of Union Church, Hongkong, in token of respect and dsteem, and with prayer that the future years of his Ministry, may be increasingly Copies may be had at Chris Mart Office

THE LIENCHAU MASSACRE.

WE are able to-day to place before our readers a full authoritative account of the terrible massacre of Missionaries at Lienchau. Our Canton correspondent's graphic narrative, gleaned from Dr Machle, the head of the Mission at Lienchau, and others, sets specula tion entirely at rest concerning the origination of the tragedy. There was no upsetting of idols, no interference with 'jose pidgin,' as previously reported—and no action on the part of Dr Machle or his colleagues sufficient to warrant such terrible vengeance being visited upon the heads of the Mission by the natives. The suggestion that the massacre was due, to anti-Christian feeling is disproved by the fact that no native converts were attacked and no other Missions were molested. The connection seems to be rather with the anti-American movement. The attitude and operation of Roman Catholic converts in the slaughter, however, seems to is alleged, the French priost failed, when called upon, to use his influence, where it would be respected,

ATTACK ON THE WOMEN, The accounts of the massacre of the other missionaries are given by Chinese who witnessed the awful atrocities. I shrink from writing all that I have heard. Much must be left for the readers to imagine. The women were spared the worst. Innocent little Amie Machle was the first to be put to death. She and Dr Chesnut were the first ones found by the mob. They were stripped of all clothing and were thrown uninjured into the river. Dr of Chinese officials gained by lile years of Chesnut could swim and safely reached a sand bar out in the river. APPALLING DISASTER.

Six Europeans Drowned. Rescue Party Lost.

An appalling disaster occurred while the During blasting operations at the Quarry | coolie steamer "Katharine Park," which Bay Docks yesterday afternoon ab ut five came into port yesterday, was lying a o'clock, an accident happened in which Chinwantso, the steamer's Chief Officer three men lost their lives, and two or three and five of the European members of her crew, being drowned.

The vessel was at Chinwantao on October blasts had been prepared and a gong was 26 (Thursday) occupied in taking in coolies, when at about 3 a.m. astrong wind sprang up from the north east, and continued to Believing that all the blasts had taken blow with such force that about an hour place several men rushed to the locality to later it was found necessary to pay out

Notwithstanding this the anchor was onthe gong was going and notwithstanding able to keep the steamer ateady and she that a European overseer called out a warn- drifted during the early morning close to the Italian man-of-war "Marco Polo," Hardly had a group assembled near one when a second anchor was dropped to hole than a terrific explosion took place steady her. A boat was fastened satern and amidst the oprising earth could be seen and seemed to be in danger of breaking away, so that Chief Officer Edwards ordered When able to examine the spot it was E. Johnson, an A.B., to go over the side

Before leaving the ship's deck the officer tied a life line round the man's waist, but There is no blame attachable to anyone on getting into the boat he unfortunately but the men themselves, and perhaps the cast it off and having made the painter fast to the stem of the boat was also tying impatient to wait for the signals to be and a big sea striking the boat, completely capsized it throwing Johnson into the

> Several of the crew at once ran to the side to his assistance and threw him a life-buoy, and, being a very atrong swimmer, he obtained it after a short struggle.

> One of the after boats, which was hanging in the davits ready for lowering was then manned and lowered and let down into the water, the boat's crew being G. Edwards (Chief Officer) A.B.'S Martensen, Theralvsen, Sivertson, and Ordinary Seamen

After shout ten minutes hard pulling the boat succeeded in picking Johnson up and taking him on board, but on heading for the ship again such a heavy sea was running that they were unable to make any headway and these on board, seeing their position, signalled to the signal station on R.W.K., Lt. J. Taylor, 119th Inf., R. A. shore to send the steam tug off to their

No notice was taken of this signal and ers are requested to be on the ground in distress rockets were then fired from the steamer, but still the tog did not put off, and for three bours the boat's crew battled with the wayes and were-last seen shortly after noon on the top of a mountainous ass, Every moment it seemed that the little craft must be awamped and go down, but by great skill and courage its crew kept it afloat until one sea larger than the rest TATELL FURNISHED BED ROOMS; must have filled and sunk it.

At about five o'clock that afternoon. after the sea had gone down the tug came off and explained that the reason why they did not answer the signal was because they did not want to lose their boat, but seeing that she was a large steam tug used for conveying coolies on board there would seem to have been little fear of this had she gone to the boat's assistance.

Search was then made for the missing boat, which was eventually found floating bottom upwards, and next morning the tug reported having picked up the bodies of the Chief Officer and seaman Sivertson but none of the other bodies were recovered and were still missing when the steamer left for Hongkong.

Captain Copp and two of the ship's doctors went ashore and examined the bodies of the officer and sosman, and the following day they were buried at Chinwantae.

in digestion. Tean, British str., 1,346, W. B. Brown, Six weeks ago Manila Nov. 7, General.—Butterfield & death would have been a relief. My face Swine. and lips were colourless, for I have no blood in my veins. My broath was so short that on appearal occasions I fell down in the street from pure exhaustion. Unlike most anemic girls, I had a keen appoiite; in fact, it was unnatural. I suffered a great Rio Lima, Portuguese gunboat, for Macao. deal with pains in the head and side - pains | Palermo, for Shanghai. which soldom left me. I went to the best | Hangsang, for Shanghai. doctor we could find. I took medicine, Ragia, for Shanghai. medicine, medicine-anything to get re- Rejaburi, for Bangkok.

Mrs. Chamberlain added: "One night Rubi, for Manila. my daughter came home, and as soon as Stantssekretar Kraetke, for Shanghai. she got in she dropped. I made sure she Arabia, for Kohe and Ponland, Or. was dying. I had lead about Dr. Williams' Derivent, for Saigon. pink pills, and I got her a bottle and made Trigonia. for Palambang. hertake them regularly. From that time Yuensang, for Manila, -she began to mend. I think I cried for joy | Progress, for Shanghai. when I saw the alteration in her. The colour begin to blomn in her cheeks; her eyes, which had been dull, grew bright Senegambia, for Singapore and Humburg. and she became quite active. She soon ceased to be troubled by shortness of breath, Telemachus, for Saigon. and before long she was in perfect health

Ausemia is simply bloodlessness. Dr. Williams' pink pills make now blood : thus they cure anomis just as food cures hunger. They are good for other troubles of women and girls; and of men, too, for they cure bile, indigestion, gout, rhoumatism, sclatica, heart disease, backache, paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, and all troubles that arise from poor blood or starved nerves. Dr Williams' medicine co., Holborn-viaduct, London England, send a bettle for two shillings and ninepence, six for thirteen and nine: but they can be had at most
